DATED 11. 6. 1924

DC & Recds

[Despatch Abstract.]

Office of the Inspr.-Genl.
of Registration,

U.O.No.253 Off. Madras, 5th December 1924.

In my letter No.253 Off., dated 12th September 1924 I proposed the acquisition, in addition to the site and building belonging to M.R.Ry. Y. Ananda Rao of 11 cents of land belonging to the Police Department at the suggestion of the Executive Engineer to admit of the construction of an office on the standard design with necessary compound, if and when the necessity therefor arose. The Police Department having since objected to the proposed transfer of their land, the Executive Engineer, West Coast Division, was consulted on the subject and he has intimated that the site belonging to M.R.Ry. Y. Ananda Rao measuring 14 cents would admit of the construction of a Third Class Sub-Registry office on the plot as indicated in red ink in the enclosed site plan. In the circumstances, I request that the idea of obtaining 11 cents of land from the Police Department may be abandoned, the site and building of M.R.Ry. Y. Ananda Rao being sufficient for the use of this department.

I accordingly submit herewith for approval an alternative estimate for the above amounting to Rs.620/-
